Jürgen Kriz

Fundamental Concepts in Psychotherapy

Contents

1 Introduction: The Roots of Psychotherapy

1.1 Man as a Social Being
1.2 The Anthropological Image of Man in the 19th Century
1.3 The Beginnings of Psychoanalysis
1.4 Freud and his Followers
1.5 The Breakup of the Psychoanalytical Movement
1.6 The Rise of non-analytical Approaches
1.7 Psychotherapy today
1.8 Summary
1.9 Comprehension Questions

I Psychodynamic Approaches

2 Psychoanalysis (Freud)

2.1 The Term “Psychoanalysis”
2.2 Development of the Psychoanalytic Theory
2.3 The Structural Model of Personality
2.4 Instinct Theory
2.5 The Stage Model of Psychosexual Development
2.6 Conflicts, Symptom Formation and Neurosis
2.7 The Psychotherapeutic Situation
2.8 Dreams and their Interpretation
2.9 Resistance, Transference, and Countertransference
2.10 Summary
2.11 Comprehension Questions

3 Individual Psychology (Adler)

3.1 Individual and Society
3.2 Inferiority and Striving for Superiority
3.3 Style of Life, Guidelines, and Life Plan
3.4 Social Interest and the Hunger for Power
3.5 The Arrangement of Neurotic Symptoms
3.6 Principles of Individual Psychological Therapy
3.7 Summary
3.8 Comprehension Questions
Analytic Psychology (Jung)

4.1 The Development of Analytic Psychology
4.2 Structure and Functions of the Psyche
4.3 Jung’s Theory of Psychological Types
4.4 The Collective Unconsciousness and Archetypes
4.5 Individuation
4.6 Jungian Psychotherapy
4.7 Summary
4.8 Comprehension Questions

Bioenergetic body therapy (Reich and Lowen)

5.1 Wilhelm Reich and Alexander Lowen
5.2 Reich vs. Freud
5.3 Mental Health and Energy
5.4 Sexuality and Society
5.5 Structure and Types of the Character
5.6 Body Armor and Bioenergetic Therapy
5.7 Lowen’s Concept of the Character
5.8 Grounding and Body Work
5.9 Summary
5.10 Comprehension Questions

Transactional Analysis

6.1 Development and basic Concepts of Transactional Analysis
6.2 Structural Analysis
6.3 Communication Model of Transactional Analysis
6.4 Game Analysis
6.5 Script Analysis
6.6 Therapeutic Interventions
6.7 Summary
6.8 Comprehension Questions

Recent Developments in the Psychodynamic Approaches

7.1 Factors of Change in the Psychodynamic Approaches
7.2 Temporary main Approaches
7.3 Summary
7.4 Comprehension Questions
II Behavior Therapy

8 Basic Concepts of Behavior Therapy
  8.1 Overview, Background, and Development of Behavior Therapy
  8.2 Early Theoretical Approaches
  8.3 Early Practice-Oriented Approaches
  8.4 American Learning Theories
  8.5 Summary
  8.6 Comprehension Questions

9 Learning Theory Approaches to Behavior therapy
  9.1 Desensitization and Overcoming Fear
  9.2 Operant Approaches
  9.3 Self-Control
  9.4 Summary
  9.5 Comprehension Questions

10 Cognitive Behavior Therapy
  10.1 The Emergence of Cognitive Behavior Therapy
  10.2 Model Learning
  10.3 Problem Solving
  10.4 Covert Conditioning
  10.5 Self-Instruction
  10.6 Cognitive Therapy
  10.7 Multimodal Therapy (BASIC ID)
  10.8 Summary
  10.9 Comprehension Questions

11 Rational Emotive Therapy (Ellis)
  11.1 The Emergence of Rational Emotive Therapy
  11.2 The A-B-C of Rational Emotive Therapy
  11.3 Method and Practice of Rational Emotive Therapy
  11.4 Summary
  11.5 Comprehension Questions

12 Recent Developments in Behavior Therapy
  12.1 The Triumph of Behavior Therapy
  12.2 Main Approaches of the “Third Wave” of Behavior Therapy
  12.3 Summary
  12.4 Comprehension Questions
III  Humanistic Psychotherapy

13  The History of Humanistic Psychotherapies
13.1 Epistemological Background of Humanistic Approaches
13.2 Philosophical Roots
13.3 Influences from Psychology
13.4 View of Man of the Humanistic Approaches
13.5 Summary
13.6 Comprehension Questions

14  Person Centered Psychotherapy (Rogers)
14.1 History of the Person Centered Approach
14.2 Development of the Person Centered Approach
14.3 Rogers’ Theory of Personality and of Human Development
14.4 Basic Attitudes of the Therapist
14.5 The Therapeutic Process
14.6 Experiencing and Focusing
14.7 Summary
14.8 Comprehensive Questions

15  Gestalt Therapy (Perls)
15.1 Emergence of Gestalt Therapy
15.2 Basic Concepts of Gestalt Therapy
15.3 Aspects and Techniques of Intervention
15.4 Summary
15.5 Comprehension Questions

16  Logotherapy and Existential Analysis (Frankl)
16.1 Emergence of Logotherapy and Existential Analysis
16.2 Theory and Practice
16.3 Summary
16.4 Comprehensive Questions

17  Psychodrama (Moreno)
17.1 Emergence of Psychodrama
17.2 Basic Concepts of Psychodrama
17.3 The Practice of Psychodrama Therapy
17.4 Summary
17.5 Comprehension Questions

18  Recent Developments in Humanistic Psychotherapy
18.1 The Rediscovery of Humanistic Concepts
18.2 New Approaches of Humanistic Psychotherapy
18.3 Summary
18.4 Comprehensive Questions
IV Systemic Psychotherapy

19 Fundamentals of Systemic Psychotherapy
- 19.1 Family Therapy vs. Systemic Psychotherapy
- 19.2 History of Family and Systemic Psychotherapy
- 19.3 The Fundamental View of Systemic Psychotherapy
- 19.4 Main Concepts of the Systems Approach
- 19.5 The Systemic Discourse on Patients and Families
- 19.6 Summary
- 19.7 Comprehension Questions

20 Systemic Psychotherapy with Families
- 20.1 General Concepts of Family Therapeutic Interventions
- 20.2 Psychoanalytically Oriented Family Therapy
- 20.3 Structural Family Therapy
- 20.4 Experience-Centered Family Therapy
- 20.5 Strategic Family Therapy
- 20.6 Summary
- 20.7 Comprehension Questions

21 Systemic Psychotherapy of Disturbed Communications and Couples
- 21.1 Core Concepts of Communication and Interaction
- 21.2 Pragmatics of Man’s Communication
- 21.3 Effect and Therapy of Pragmatic Paradoxes
- 21.4 Therapy of Collusion in Partnerships
- 21.5 Summary
- 21.6 Comprehension Questions

22 Recent Developments in Systemic Psychotherapy
- 22.1 The Narrative Turn
- 22.2 Narrative Approaches
- 22.3 Summary
- 22.4 Comprehension Questions

EPILOG: Outline of the Person-Centered Systems Theory – a Holistic Concept of Psychotherapy